

Bainbridge Island Television

invites you to the premiere viewing of this student-driven documentary film

“Shifting Currents”

Monday, June 18th @ 7:30 p.m.

The Historic Lynwood Theatre, Bainbridge Island, Washington

Admission $10

Presale Tickets Available
At Lynwood Theatre

Proceeds go to the
Eagle Harbor Elwha Fund &
BITV Student Scholarship Fund

Q&A Session follows, with local student filmmakers.
Gimme Green creates a double feature for your enjoyment.

“Shifting Currents” a documentary produced by Eagle Harbor High School students, highlights the story of the Elwha River Dam Removal. The students reflect on environmental issues inherited from earlier generations and their hope for the future. (Approx. 15 minutes) --  flyer is attached for your office, school or fridge ***

“Gimme Green” produced by graduate students, is an award winning documentary. It is a humorous look at America’s obsession with the residential lawn and the effect it has on our environment, our wallets, and our outlook on life. (Approx. 30 minutes)

Shifting Currents

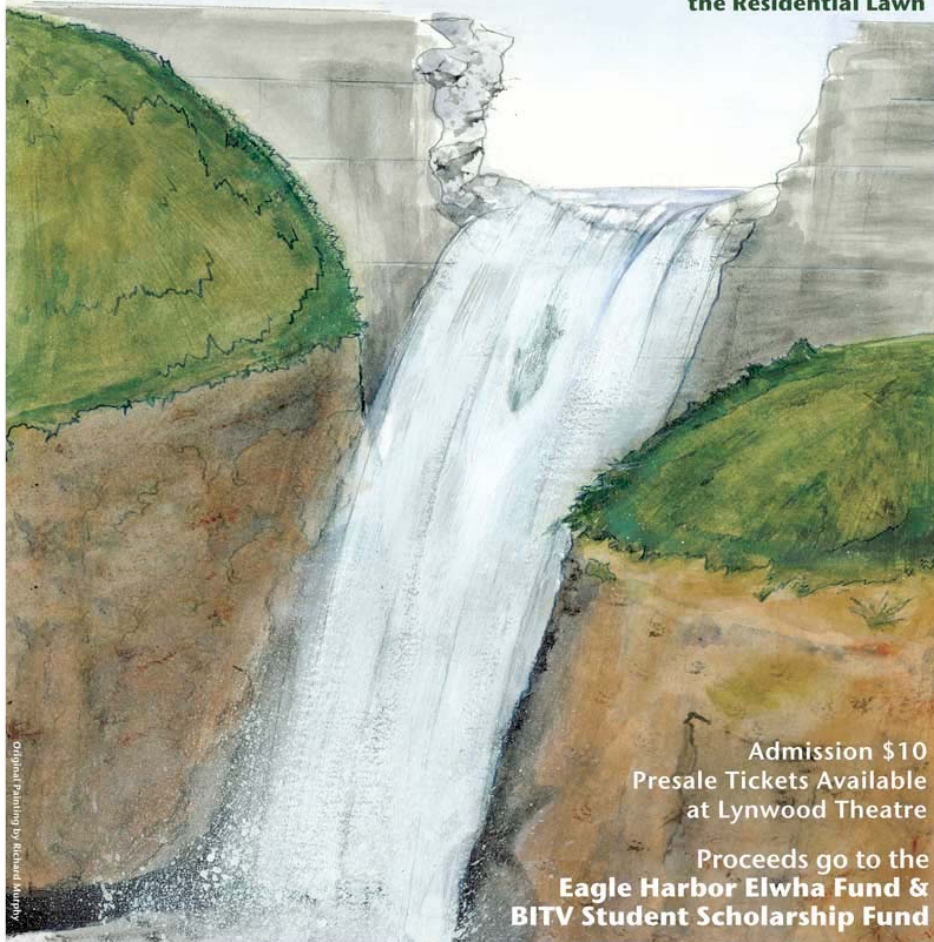

A Student Documentary of the Elwha Dam Removal

"Going to a place for five days and focusing on the environment will change the way you think about everything for a long time"

- Eli Jacobsen

Gimme Green

America's Obsession with the Residential Lawn

Admission $10
Presale Tickets Available
at Lynwood Theatre

Proceeds go to the
Eagle Harbor Elwha Fund &
BITV Student Scholarship Fund

Student Films

A Special Screening and Fundraiser Event

Presented by BITV and Eagle Harbor High School

"Shifting Currents" a documentary produced by Eagle Harbor High School students, highlights the story of the Elwha River Dam Removal. The students reflect on environmental issues inherited from earlier generations and their hope for the future. (Approx. 15 minutes)

"Gimme Green" produced by graduate students, is an award winning documentary. It is a humorous look at America's obsession with the residential lawn and the effect it has on our environment, our wallets and our outlook on life. (Approx. 30 minutes)

Monday, June 18th @ 7:30

The Historic Lynwood Theatre
Q&A Session with local student filmmakers

This Eagle Harbor High School student film was produced in partnership with Eagle Harbor High School, BITV's Film and Television Education Program; Bainbridge Island Arts Education Community Consortium, administered by BI Arts and Humanities Council, with funding from the Harvest Foundation; Olympic Park Institute; Coalition of Essential Schools; Bainbridge Schools Foundation; and the Eagle Harbor PTO.